

Christmas Impossibilities

Text: Luke 1

In many ways the Christmas story reminds us of God's ability and willingness to do the impossible.

I. God doesn't forget the hopeless.

- A. Zachariah and Elizabeth were without hope of a child
- B. Their ability to do anything to change their situation was non-existent

II. God doesn't forget the helpless.

- A. Joseph and Mary were among the poorest
- B. They were among the most powerless

III. God enters our world so we can be hopeful.

- A. John the Baptist raised the hopes
- B. Jesus fulfilled the hopes of humanity
